

Technical Note TN - 533

Re-introduction of Battery Date Codes

19th October 1998

Applicability: T3000-1032, T3000-1042 and T3000-1052.

Purpose of TN: To inform CSO's, dealers and customers that the date code that was originally placed on the serial number label of the T3000 battery is to be re-introduced.

Instructions : The code itself will be placed to the bottom right of the serial number. The format will be as it was previously , with a letter of the alphabet followed by the year number.

ie : E98 , represents that the battery was made in May of 1998. The E represents the fifth month as it is the fifth letter of the alphabet.

The change started from serial number 10176027 on the 19/10/98

CSO's : Distribute to technical staff and dealers at your discretion.
